Fire Completely Demolishes Home

Home of P. H. Moore At Niles Is Burned To Ground

Fire which broke out late Tuesday night completely destroyed the home of P. H. Moore and family located on the highway a short distance south of Niles.

The home, a large two story house, was burned to the ground by the flames which caused a loss approximating several thousand dollars. Only the furniture in the downstairs portion of the home was saved.

A call for aid was received by the Niles fire department at approximately midnight Tuesday, but when the firemen were ready to leave the fire house with their truck the call was cancelled. The Moore family had heard a crackling in the attic but had not gone to investigate and cancelled the call they originally sent in.

At a quarter after one o'clock a. m., another call was received and the fire department rushed to the scene only to find the entire upper part of the home in flames. The blaze had gained too much headway to save the house, and all the fire fighters were able to do was to prevent the fire from spreading to adjoining property.

The fire originated in the attic and was thought to have been the result of defective electrical wires or sparks dropping from the chimney. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

The Moores are pioneer residents of Niles and their home was one of the landmarks in this section of the community.

New Druggist Takes Over Niles Pharmacy

Announcement was made this week that the T. J. Greenwood Pharmacy on First street, Niles, has been purchased by J. C. Walton, former Oakland druggist, who took charge of the store Wednesday morning of this week.

Walton was formerly in the druggist business in Niles and has many friends here. He has the reputation of an able pharmacist and is well qualified to take charge of the service which has been admirably rendered by Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood, who have made a host of friends during their stay in Niles, are indefinite as to future plans. They will remain in Niles for a time until all business affairs have been settled.

Hagstrom Opens New Store At Pleasanton

Another food store is now offering Pleasanton and surrounding community its service as the result of Hagstrom's Food Store opening in that city Friday.

Hagstrom's is a well-known organization in the east bay area and have markets located in nearly all the cities in this area. They have developed much popularity with the buying public.

Vallejo—Building permits totaled $66,094 for the month of October.

CORRECTION

The Register wishes to call the attention of its readers to an error in its columns last week concerning the number of ballots cast for two of the candidates in the state senatorial race in Centerville, precinct No. 2.

Although the postings on the town hall after the votes had been counted, from which the Register got its figures, showed that Shuler received 125 to 16 for McAdoo, a check-up revealed that the figures should have been transposed, giving McAdoo 125 to 16 for Shuler. Thus the total number of votes received in the township for McAdoo was 1669 to 371 for Shuler.

ROAD GROUP WILL GATHER TODAY AT HAYWARD

Further steps for inclusion of more southern Alameda county roads into the state highway system will be taken at the meeting of the Southern Alameda County Highway League in Hayward tonight (Thursday).

The league was organized at a meeting of representatives from various organizations in this territory in Hayward several weeks ago and is composed of individuals from each community in southern Alameda county.

E. A. Ellsworth, chairman of the Niles Chamber of Commerce road committee, and W. B. Kirk and Robert Blacow, members, will attend the gathering.

The plan proposed by Senator Arthur H. Breed to be enacted as a bill at the next session of the state legislature, would provide for several thousand miles of state highways in northern California, and southern Alameda county communities have favored obtaining a certain per centage of this amount for this section.

AUTO DEMOLISHED IN CRASH WITH TRAILER

Severe lacerations of the head were suffered by Hilario Soque, of Niles, Saturday night when a car in which he was riding collided with the trailer of a truck at the intersection of Vallejo street and the Niles Canyon highway.

The car driven by Vincent Valenciano, also of Niles, who escaped injury, was totally demolished in the crash. The injured man received treatment at the Dr. E. C. Grau emergency hospital in Niles and was sent to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Petsche entertained friends from Oakland Sunday.

CHICKEN THIEF IS CAPTURED; BLAMES LIQUOR FOR THEFT

Sentenced to Three Months
In County Jail By Judge Silva

Liquor has been known to have its various effects on individuals but it caused Elias Hobbs, of Pleasanton, to go on a chicken stealing rampage Sunday night.

Caught in the act of wringing the necks of chickens in a hen house belonging to Mrs. Nora Silva, near Mission San Jose Sunday night, Hobbs said he was too drunk to know any better when he plead guilty to petty theft before Judge J. A. Silva in the Niles justice court Monday morning. The judge did not regard the excuse as sufficient justification for the attempted theft and sentenced Hobbs to three months in the county jail.

The chicken slayer was captured after the Silva family noticed a light and heard a fluttering of wings in their chicken house. Hurrying to the scene, a hired man on the farm discovered four dead chickens with necks wrung, while Hobbs fled down the road. The hired man set out in pursuit and overtook him.

Hobbs was taken to Niles where he was lodged in jail over Sunday night. He was taken to the county jail Monday morning by Deputy Sheriff Hugo Radbruch and Constable O. W. Ebricht.

Valenzuela is survived by four children, Everett, Lisle, Alvin, and Glenn Valenzuela. The deceased was a member of the Fruitvale camp of the Woodmen of the World.

Funeral services were conducted at the California columbarium in Oakland at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

NEW POST OFFICE BUILDING IS COMPLETED

Although it is not definitely known when the mail quarters will be moved, the new postoffice building in H street, Niles, was completed last week and is now ready for occupancy.

The new structure built by J. A. Silva is an attractive one-story building, 22 x 60 feet in dimensions and made of reinforced concrete. It is attractively finished in white with a red tile roof and constructed especially to suit the postoffice needs. Frank Duarte, of Niles, was in charge of the general contract work.

According to J. A. Silva, owner, the postoffice department has not given him any definite word when the mail quarters will be moved from their present location on First street to the new building.

NILES CHAMBER DISCUSSES PROPOSED $3,000,000 BOND ISSUE FOR COUNTY RELIEF

Reverend William Attwood
To Deliver Thanksgiving
Address Monday

The $3,000,000 bond issue proposed by the Alameda county board of supervisors to provide indigent relief in the county during the coming winter was the principal topic of discussion at the meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce Monday noon.

The matter was brought before the chamber as a result of the reading of a communication from the Oakland Chamber of Commerce inviting the Niles civic body to be represented at a meeting of various civic organizations held Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of discovering the reaction throughout the county to the proposed bond issue.

With the funds in the hands of the various county welfare organizations nearly exhausted already and with prospects of facing a serious problem of providing relief during the winter, the supervisors have suggested the bond issue, which would be voted upon by the people at a special election, as the means of meeting the situation.

After considerable discussion the Niles Chamber of Commerce moved to postpone definite action on the matter until a future date. The opinion prevailed, however, that the question of indigent relief will have to be met by some means.

An entertaining account of his trip to the University of Southern California—University of California football game at Los Angeles three weeks ago was related to the chamber by Dr. R. H. Bennett, who attended from Niles. Several of the civic body members who are ardent California fans were delighted by Dr. Bennett's explanation of how the game should have been won by the gridders from Berkeley in spite of the fact that the scoreboard read 27 to 7 against them when the contest was over.

Before closing, Dr. Bennett also expressed a note of sympathy for

Hotel Secretary Shoots Self in San Francisco Apartment

As an aftermath of what reported to have been a gay weekend party, Mrs. Freda Brandts-Buys, Berkeley hotel secretary, fatally shot herself in an apartment rented by Melvin T. Duffy, of Niles, at 721 Bush street, San Francisco, Sunday morning.

Mrs. Brandts-Buys died Monday at the French hospital in San Francisco.

Upon questioning by the police, Duffy said he had invited Mrs. Brandts-Buys to San Francisco as his week-end guest and that she had been a friend of his for several years.

The woman shot herself with a 22 calibre revolver belonging to Duffy, who had left the apartment to go for his car in which the two had planned to go for a ride. When he returned he found the apartment door locked from the inside. He shouted for Mrs. Brandts-Buys to open the door but she replied she couldn't. Calling the landlady, Duffy broke open the door and found the woman lying on the bed clad in pajamas and negligee and bleeding from a wound in her breast.

A note written by the woman was found on the desk and read: "Sorry to take this messy way out, but I'm so tired of thinking and working. I can't go back to work again. My love to mother and help her all you can. Freda."

Police were told by Jacob Livingston, managing owner of Hotel Whitecotton in Berkeley that he had known Mrs. Brandts-Buys for several years and she had served as his secretary for the past three months. He also said that he had met Duffy who had been introduced as an old friend of the dead woman.

At the hospital where she was taken, Mrs. Brandts-Buys said her work was too much for her and that she couldn't sleep at nights. She stated that her mother, Mrs. Amanda Barghaus, lives at Newcastle in Placer county.

Although she had been morose, no hint had been given by the woman of her intentions during the time they had been together, police were informed by Duffy, who was released after questioning.

His home is located at Niles, but Duffy has been residing for some time at Michigan Bluff, Placer county, where he has mining interests. It is said that Mrs. Brandts-Buys accompanied him on several visits he has made to Niles.

Reckless Driver Fined $25 In Niles Court

Pleading guilty to a charge of reckless driving when he faced Judge J. A. Silva in the Niles justice court Monday afternoon, Ed Evans, Hetch Hetchy employee, was fined $25.

Evans was arrested Sunday night on the Warm Spring-Mission San Jose highway by Traffic Officer Duffy Lewis. Both he and a companion were said to have been drinking. Evans was held in the Niles jail until Monday.

Niles School Tossers In Win Over Newark

The Niles grammar school baseball nine defeated the Newark school team last Wednesday afternoon on the Niles grounds by a 9 to 7 count.

Reno Quarteroli and Joe Rebello were the battery for Niles. Newark scored four of its counters in the third frame when one of their sluggers poled out a circuit clout with the sacks populated. The Niles boys will play the Irvington school this week.

The International Asp

The panhandlers of Europe are again knocking at our doors. They come not with hat in hand and with humility in their souls asking for our charity. They come brazenly, demanding that we cancel or scale down still further a just debt, eagerly contracted by them in a great emergency, when no other nation on earth could or would let them have the money to save their tottering governments.

England, upon whose vast domains the sun never sets, writes the state department that it does not find it convenient to meet a $95,000,000 interest obligation due on December 15. Joining this once proud nation, is France, and all the other beggar nations of Continental Europe.

Choosing a time to deal with this government when the president has been repudiated by the people as no other president has ever been, in the history of the United States, shows extreme bad taste. Its haste leads even the most skeptical to embrace, as true, the charge that Hoover had promised his European friends to cancel war debts, once the election was over and the clamor of the rabble had ceased. And the President, at Palo Alto, could not nurse his wounds on the campus of Stanford, even seventy-two hours, before rushing to Washington to give attention to the demands of the government of King George to beat the taxpayers of America out of over $4,000,000,000 of dollars, and the rest of the defaulters in the amount of $7,000,000,000 more.

England's budget is balanced. An accomplishment at the expense of a deficiency in the budget of the United States. France, a nation that has never really felt hard times, and where unemployment is negligible, with practically all the world's gold hid away in her vaults, trots along with the mighty British Empire, pleading poverty. Ah, these nations with their smaller allies, have the unmitigated gall to come to America—America with its eleven million of unemployed tramping the streets and highways, hungry and desperate—America with its ten thousand bank failures, and its two hundred thousand business failures of the past two or three years—America—yes, to this America, England and France come, not asking, but demanding that she grant them another moratorium on December 15, and eventually cancel the entire debt.

So you see the dirty mess brought upon us by public officials who think more of Europe than America. These Americans have made Europe believe that cancellation is possible. What does that mean? It means that the American taxpayers not only have paid for our own part in a foreign war, but the war debt of all others participating in the struggle to subdue the German empire will have been met by assessments on American industry and American property.

We have had to have this fact made palpable—palpable in the unseemly haste to give ear to Europe's plea. We have had to see the politicians jump when England cracked her whip. We have had to feel in our faces the poisonous breath of the international asp, to convince us that there are men capable of selling their honor and their country, not for a wretched handful of gold, but probably for tinsel and a smile of approval, which conscienceless titled paupers of England and Europe have the baseness to offer them.

Senile Dementia

Governor Rolph apparently insists on making an ass of himself regularly every two weeks. His latest outburst of assnity is in his avowed intention to pardon every bootlegger in California.

Why? Because the voters repealed the Wright act. He seems to forget that the Eighteenth amendment is still the law of America. A good citizen does not pick out the laws he will obey. How absurd to say, "Well I don't like this law; it is not just—I will ignore it." What kind of a government would we have under that plan of reasoning? Anarchy!

And Rolph subscribes to that kind of government. The people in our jails who violated the liquor laws knew they were defying the law of America. By no stretch of imagination can they be called good citizens. They are entitled to no sympathy, except the general sympathy that man accords to all erring humanity. To pick these people out as a class and turn them loose is the act of a man incapable of sane reasoning, a dangerous man in whom to vest even the slightest authority.

When the sale of liquor has been legalized by congress, the traffic in beer and whiskey and wine will be a lawful business. Until then, it is an unlawful business.

With the governor of California weeping on the shoulder of Wright Act violators, the executive department has fallen still further into the slime of idiocy and senile dementia.

Let's See; Who's Wrong?

Falling utterly in his effort to get an unqualified endorsement from the children's parents for the manner in which he, as head of the Washington Union high school, is conducting the affairs of that institution, Principal Rathbone still ignores the abuses of which the Register complains.

Assuming the untenable position of infallibility, both the principal and the school board are irritating patrons and taxpayers by their autocratic deportment. They seem to forget that the conduct of the schools is a public business, not a private one. By a number of outstanding acts of school administration they have unmistakably shown that they believe these

Editorial Comment

NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

the taxpayers are to be exploited for the profit of the faculty. With the admitted inclination of human nature to lean toward individual selfishness, it is not hard to understand the things this year transpiring at Washington Union high school, which are directly traceable to Rathbone and his assistants. Understanding and penetrating the deliberations of the school board is another thing. The Township Register inclines to the opinion that the school teachers are far more astute than the board. By cajolery and flattery they have manipulated these inexperienced men in public affairs into a complete and docile reception of their manifestly material viewpoint. While the board may believe all is not well, the members lack the courage to oppose those with whom they are personally friendly. They are mere putty in the hands of a political school machine that has grown ruthless with past successes. When they put across the teacher's tenure law, teachers well believed that they had the state by the throat, and their jobs tied up with a sailor's knot.

Let us see what the Township Register has been complaining about. Let us see if the changes we demand are unreasonable. Let us see if we speak for the patron and the taxpayer, or are the enemy of public education.

We charge extravagance, considering the times. Are we right or not? Every school—practically every school, we will say to be on the safe side—in the state has cut teachers' wages from ten to twenty-five per cent. Washington Union high school continues on a war-time salary basis. We charge that the printing department at the school is a total loss—has been a loss throughout the years of existence. What would you think of a law school that never turned out a lawyer? Well, the printing school in Centerville never turned out a printer, and its our guess it never will. The department was created to give Kibby a job. In that respect it was a grand success. A grand success to the tune of $2400 a year, and $45 to boot, driving a bus a few blocks farther than if he only had to drive home from school.

We insist that to teach aviation, throw dumbbells and warble at night school sessions, under the stress of present financial circumstances, is an insult to public decency, and a slap at the taxpayers, showing in what regard the men and women who pay the bill are regarded by the new superintendent and his men on the school board.

There is really no excuse, in these times, to teach music, either in the day or night school. Submitting to the writer alleged ways that the school was to economize, the school administration gave us to understand that music was to be dropped this year. After school authorities thought this paper had lapsed into silence, they ran in a teacher from over near the village of Galt. They capped this by giving the instructor another sixteen a week for singing a few songs with the night school pupils.

This paper challenged the good taste—in fact, said it was brutally selfish and heartless for teachers to hold down two jobs while hundreds of worthy people were begging just for an opportunity to make enough money to buy food to keep body and soul together. There was Kibby with a fine salary as day teacher, driving the school bus. Then there was the pitiable Webb who was soon to pay for his two-job program, driving a bus, also, and getting his $45 a month and his $2400 a year besides. Would the board put a stop to this? No! The teachers wanted this money for themselves, and the school board, knowing the practice to be wrong, didn't have the manhood to tell the teachers, "We're running this school; take orders from us or get out."

Then you know what happened. A wreck. Nine little lives jeopardized, Webb injured. Out of school for weeks. Still absent from his classes. Bus a heap of junk. No insurance. The outcome: highway patrol condemns another school bus, though the wreck was not in any way the result of the mechanical condition of the bus, but might have easily been the reflex action of the mental condition of the driver.

Now $6000 of the taxpayers' money is to be spent for new busses. All the upshot of selfishness on the part of teachers wanting to grab all the school money for themselves.

Then we have our night school instructors. Practically all teachers in the day school. Night principal draws down $100 a month on top of his $2700 as day teacher. And this same principal's wife draws down another handsome salary over at Sunol. And there are teachers right here in this township, capable, worthy, good citizens and good Christians, anxious for a chance to work even part time.

Well friends and taxpayers, do you think the Township Register is unreasonable? Do you think it is wrong in attacking this evil? Do you think it ought to be chastized for showing up this dirty mess at Washington Union high school, and demanding that either Rathbone correct these abuses or get out?

The Register has nothing more to gain by a change in policy over at Centerville than any other citizen and taxpayer. It has that much and no more. It has a duty, however, because it speaks to practically every family in this district, to expose evil and maladministration wherever it is found. It will continue to do so. It will eventually win, because it is right. These abuses must cease and will cease.

CENTERVILLE CIVIC FLAG POLE IS ERECTED

Centerville has a community flag pole of which it can well be proud as the result of the erection of the all-steel pole this week in front of the fire department house. The Centerville Lions Club purchased the pole and the erection plans were in charge of Joe Jason.

A crew of Pacific Gas and Electric Company men raised the pole. It is 100 feet high and rests in a concrete base. Plans are being made by the Lions for appropriate dedication ceremonies to be held sometime in the near future.

Although the Centerville den held a dance recently to raise money to defray expenses of the pole, a sufficient amount was not realized and a benefit whist party is being held by the Lions Friday night (tomorrow) in Parish hall in the effort to obtain enough funds to pay the entire expenses. Harold DeLeon is chairman of the group arranging for the affair. He has promised an enjoyable evening to all those who attend.

With the first of the civic projects planned by the Lions Club realized, President Frank Madruga has announced that numbering of the houses and streets in Centerville will be taken up very shortly by the den.

178,000 people opened new accounts with BANK of AMERICA Since March 1932

Here is an outstanding example of state-wide teamwork on the part of alert, thinking people—a response to Bank of America's appeal to put spare dollars to work for all California.

The vast sum of money deposited by our new customers has played an important part in financing California industries and also various community projects.

The total number of people opening new accounts in Bank of America since March, 1932, would populate a city considerably larger than San Diego—fourth city of California.

WASHINGTON DOWNS DEAF AND DUMB SCHOOL 18 TO 6

Cornhuskers Finish Grid Season With Win at Centerville

Ring down the curtain on the 1932 grid season, Washington Union high school rolled up an 18 to 6 victory over the School for the Deaf and Dumb last Thursday afternoon at Centerville.

With the exception of the opening minutes of the game when one of the Dummies intercepted a Washington forward pass and galloped fifty-five yards to score, the Cornhuskers dominated the contest throughout.

Using power plays with Geb and Medeiros lugging the ball through the line for large gains interspersed with sweeps around ends in which Rose picked up considerable yardage, Washington had no difficulty in pushing the Dummies about the field and accounting for three touchdowns.

The Cornhuskers showed considerable improvement over earlier season play by the manner in which they rolled up first downs through the opposition's line and their defense stiffened whenever their own goal was threatened.

The Dummies lone score came on the third play of the game. Geb heaved a pass that was taken by one of the Dummies on his own forty-five stripe for a dash across the goal line. The try for point after touchdown by a place kick was unsuccessful.

Washington tallied its first touchdown in the second quarter to deadlock the score. Geb and Medeiros alternated at crashing through the line for long gains in a sixty-five-yard drive that ended in a touchdown. Geb carried the ball over. Try for extra point failed, leaving the count at 6 all when the gun sounded for the half.

On practically the same plays that featured their first score, the Cornhuskers came back in the third period and punched over another touchdown.

The deceased is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. M. Thomas, Mrs. Francis Silveria, Mrs. Phillipina Garcia, Mrs. Mary Freitas, Joaquin, Tony and John Abreu. He made his home with his sister, Mrs. Silveria, at Centerville.

Interment followed at the Holy Ghost cemetery, Centerville. Botelho mortuary was in charge of funeral arrangements.

WASHINGTON HIGH HOOPERS LOSE TO EMERYVILLE FIVE

Cornhuskers Close Class "C" Season With 25 13 Defeat

To the tune of 25 to 13, Washington Union high school's Class "C" eagles closed the season by dropping a contest to Emeryville high school last Thursday afternoon. The game was played at Emeryville.

The Emeryville five has not been defeated all year and annexed the southern Alameda county Class "C" basketball title this year.

Although the Washington boys put up a strong fight against the league champions, Emeryville flashed a brilliant attack that never left the outcome of the contest in doubt. They took the lead from the opening whistle and held it throughout the contest. The score at half time read 12 to 4 in their favor.

Too much Rastignolia largely proved the undoing of the Cornhuskers. This speedy Emeryville forward hit the basket for thirteen points himself, as many as the entire Washington team scored.

Fudenna and Sekigahama (who was back in the Washington lineup) shared scoring honors for the Cornhuskers with five points each.

Washington line-up and scoring was: Fudenna (5), Sekigahama (5), Luppe, forwards; Dusterberry (2), Witherly (1), center; Mune, Kato, Masuda, Brown, Ushigima, guards.

UNLIMITED AND CLASS "B" Fifty-four aspirants to the unlimited and Class "B" basketball fives greeted Coach Jess Regli's first call for practice Monday afternoon. The squad will be cut down as practice sessions progress.

For the unlimited five, three veterans from last year's quintet were out for the opening practice. These were Jack Coley, guard; Jack Rathbone, center and forward; and Joe Rodrigues, forward. Around these three hoopers, Coach Regli hopes to mold a winning five for this season.

In Class "B" competition, all the boys who have just completed the Class "C" season are eligible and undoubtedly will make up part of the regular quintet. Others back from last year are Ernest Phippen and Manuel Renia.

William H. Ford Gives $4000 For New Hospital

The 1931-32 report of the president and treasurer of the Bohemian Club, San Francisco, issued recently, reveals that William H. Ford, prominent Niles and San Francisco business man and member of the club, played a noteworthy part in the organization's activities during the past year.

Plans for the construction of a new hospital fully equipped for the handling of any emergency case that might arise during the club's encampment at the Grove near the Russian river were realized this year through a gift of $4000 made by Ford. It was planned to defer this improvement for another year due to regard for economy, but Ford's gift made the hospital possible during the present year.

Quoting from the report: "Your Board has already officially expressed the Club's appreciation to Bohemian Ford for his generosity. However, in view of this record of usefulness made by the new Grove Hospital, the Committee wishes to add its own word of appreciation of the generous and loyal impulse which prompted this gift, that during the Encampment just past, proved its great value to those unfortunate enough to need immediate medical or surgical attention."

MORE ON NILES CHAMBER

Glen "Pop" Warner, coach of the Stanford University football team, which he declared would be needed after Saturday's clash when the Golden Bears meet the Stanford Indians in the "Big Game."

Although the above sentiment prevails among many of the Niles chamber members, the Stanford minority are of the opinion that it will be "Navy Bill" Ingram who will need the notes of condolence after Saturday's game and are expectant of attending next week's meeting of the chamber with faces wreathed in broad smiles and prepared to enjoy the discomfiture of California supporters.

Announcement was made by F. V. Jones that a Thanksgiving address by Reverend William J. Attwood, pastor of the Episcopal church in Centerville, will feature next Monday's meeting. Reverend J. L. McElhinney delivered the Thanksgiving address to the chamber last year, which was highly enjoyed. President Jones extended an invitation for everyone to attend next Monday's meeting and hear Reverend Attwood speak.

Mother of 7—Still Young

THE woman who gives her organs the right stimulant need not worry about growing old. Her system doesn't stagnate; her face doesn't age. She has the health and "pep" that come from a lively liver and strong, active bowels.

When you're sluggish and the system needs help, don't take a lot of "patent medicines." There's a famous doctor's prescription for just such cases, and every druggist keeps this standard preparation. It is made from fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. Just ask for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Take a little every day or so, until every organ in your body feels the big improvement.

The next time you have a bilious headache, or feel all bound-up, take this delicious syrup instead of the usual cathartic. You'll be rid of all that poisonous waste, and you haven't weakened the bowels. You'll have a better appetite, and feel better in every way. The constant use of cathartics is often the cause of a sallow complexion and lines in the face. And so unnecessary!

Would you like to break yourself of the cathartic habit? At the same time building health and vigor that protects you from frequent sick spells, headaches, and colds? Get a big bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin today. Use often enough to avoid those attacks of constipation. When you feel weak and run-down or a coated tongue or bad breath, warns you the bowels need to be stimulated. Give it to children instead of strong laxatives that sap their strength. It isn't expensive.

Two Pleasanton Lodges Install at Joint Meet

Ceremonies Held at Odd Fellows' Hall Monday Night

Officers of the Pleasanton Druids Circle and Grove were installed before a large audience at joint ceremonies in the Odd Fellows' hall last Monday night. Mrs. Rita dePonte, a past arch druidess of the Pleasanton Circle, acted as district deputy installing officer, and seated the officers of Pleasanton lodge. She was assisted by Mrs. Charles Florio, past arch druidess, who acted as installing marshal.

Edna Tretzel, of Livermore, grand trustee, accompanied by a large delegation from Livermore, was present at the meeting.

R. R. Kingsley, of Livermore, district deputy, installed the men and was assisted by William Kaiser, of Livermore, as installing marshal.

Mrs. Charles Florio was presented with a past arch druidess' jewel pin, and Mrs. Lillie Cabral was presented with a gift as retiring arch druidess. Mrs. Rita dePonte made the presentations.

The new officers for the Circle are Lillie Cabral, past arch druidess; Mary Willis, arch druidess; Alice Dolstra, first bard; Carolyn Doucette, second bard; Santonia Vizzolini, conductress; Amy Bond, assistant conductress; Annuncia Fracisco, inside guard; Violet Towner, outside guard; and Mae Nevis, organist. All are Pleasanton women.

Those who were seated as officers of the Grove are Joe Vizzolini, noble arch; Charles Cavestri, vice arch; Charles Florio, conductor; John Secrist, inside guard; Manuel Pine, outside guard; Lee Wells, trustee; Frank Maggioni, financial secretary; Hermon Kohn, recording secretary; and T. DAVIS OUT AS POLICE CHIEF OF PLEASANTON

At the regular monthly meeting of the Pleasanton City Council last Monday night the resignation of Wm. T. Davis, for the past two years chief of police, was presented and accepted. The office carried with it the duties of water collector, tax collector, license collector, milk inspection fee collector, traffic officer and prosecutor in the city court. No reason was given by the chief for his resignation, and it was accepted by the council without comment.

Applications for the position were received from Duke Bonde, Nightwatchman John Delucchi, and Crawford Letham. No action was taken on the appointment, but the matter was set over for a future meeting. During the interim, Street Superintendent Manuel Rodriguez was instructed to assume the duties of the former chief.

Applications were also received from A. Sanderson, A. B. Silva, and Cesar Cavestri for the position of nightwatchman if Delucchi receives the police chief job.

Due to the death of Dr. J. Hal Cope, former city health officer, a vacancy exists in that office, and applications were received from Dr. W. D'Arcy Chase, Dr. Richard Heinz, and Dr. E. E. Lundegaard for the appointment. This matter was also laid over.

Trustee Garatti drew the attention of the council to the fact that the burning of leaves on streets recently paved drew the oil out of the street dressing and was injurious. The street superintendent was instructed to have the practice discontinued.

Routine business occupied the remainder of the council session.

SAFETY FIRST

THE PUBLIC should be prudent in seeking relief from pain. Take nothing which does not have the approval of the medical profession.

BAYER ASPIRIN will never do you any harm, and almost always brings the desired relief. But remember that the high medical endorsement given Bayer Aspirin does not apply to all tablets for relief of pain.

THE DOCTOR is careful to specify Bayer Aspirin for these important reasons:
It has no injurious ingredients. No coarse particles to irritate throat or stomach. Nothing to upset the system. Not even any disagreeable taste. The Bayer process insures a pure, uniform product.

INSIST on the tablet you know to be safe. And the one that has speed. Bayer tablets dissolve so quickly, you get immediate relief from your headache, neuralgia, or other pain.

SUPERVISORS PASS THREE MILLION DOLLAR BOND ISSUE

Voters to Decide on County Indigent Relief Measure December 20

In order to provide care and maintenance of dependent poor and indigent sick in Alameda county during the coming winter, the board of supervisors at their meeting Tuesday, ordered the submission to the voters of a $3,000,000 bond issue.

According to the resolution, a special election will be held December 20 for the purpose of allowing county voters to pass on the proposed bond issue.

It would be possible to use some of the money raised by the bond issue for relief work by giving men part-time employment on county roads and other similar projects, it was pointed out by Chief Assistant District Attorney Ralph Hoyt, who prepared the measure. If the bond issue is approved by voters, it is expected that the money would become available two months after the election.

Because funds set up in the county budget are nearly depleted and the growing demand for relief work due to unemployment, the supervisors decided the bond issue as necessary to continue relief work.

Under the resolution, the bond issue will consist of twenty year bonds of $1000 denomination to bear interest at a five per cent rate. A special provision calls for the redemption of no bonds for the first three years, interest only being paid during that period. It was estimated that payment of interest would amount to about four and a half cents on the county tax rate, which will be reduced to three and three fourths cents when redemption begins. The figures will be decreased thereafter as the principal and interest are reduced.
